GAVIN ARORA

ENTREPRENEUR, DEVELOPER, TUTOR

I am an experienced entrepreneur, software developer and tutor, with a keen interest in the online education sector. Through my online educational business Edvanta, I have already taken steps towards improving access towards educational resources in the UK. As a private online tutor, I have successfully supported younger KS4/KS5 students in making progress in their academics and discovering a passion for learning.

TECHNOLOGY INTERNSHIPS

Software Intern, The Developer Society | April 2025

- Led a team of junior interns to complete Project 24: create 5 HTML/CSS websites tailored to small NGO's within 24 hours
- Conducted stand-ups, code reviews and async updates, which provided insights into professional dialogue
- Utilised version control collaboration through GitHub workflows, branches, commits, pull requests
- Mirrored distributed team communication through Slack and video conferencing

Software Intern, Blueberry Consultants | April 2025
